Scott Sparlin has been working with Megan Moudry at the Upper Sioux Community for some time on the dual names of the 1st and 2nd order streams that feed the main channel.

The ultimate goal is to get signage on state, county, and township roads where the streams intersect. We would list the English name and below it would be the native name and translation.